CALL TO ORDER & PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

APPROVAL OF MINUTES - deferred and tabled for approval next meeting in Oct.

PUBLIC COMMENTS - NONE

COMMITTEE BUSINESS

1. Eagle Projects - work in progress - Bob Cull, Washington Crossing Council sent his review for the Eagle Scout project proposal on Aug. 25, 2023. Project funding, safety, materials and next steps are in progress.
2. Trail updates Andy - Bradford Green trail has been paved near the power lines & John Paul Park
3. Inform item of the month - Recap of Warrington Day
4. Volunteer Luncheon - recommend keeping the lunch. Recognition is good. The committee will wait for Sethu and Peter to weigh in their thoughts in October.
5. Warrington day - Weather forecast is dismal for Sat. Given the hurricane/tropical storm forecast. The decision will be made on Friday, 9/22 at noon as to whether or not to cancel.

Talking points - members to come up with suggestive points

Booth set up and staffing - Scott, Lynette and Erynn to meet before noon to set up. Park and Rec, Bike Hike and Pool will all be under one tent.

Fishing Derby age issue-If canceled, the worms should go to local gardens/landscaping

Supplies for Warrington day - donors will get printed certificates. Scott will send to Andy print. The girl scouts will be stuffing the bags.

6. Liaison reports - Open Space - EAC and edible plants

OTHER BUSINESS -

Signs should be made to follow the paved pathway in IPW down to Folly Rd. Crossing to get to Warrington Day.
