Call to Meeting at 7:05PM by Commission Chair

Meeting Minutes

- Attending WHC members approved meeting minutes of March 12, 2018.
- General Business and Action Items.
 - Chair appreciated Kathy Newcomb for representing WHC to March Open Space Committee meeting. Chair also informed attendees that BoS agreed that The Open Space Referendum Bond funds could be used to support the renovation of Folly Road School project. Attendees discussed possible impacts to the lease agreement with WHS and identified projects suitable for using the funds. Chair will compile suggestions and concerns for comments before further conversation with Township.
 - Chair presented general practices on Historic Preservation easement in nearby localities. After a lengthy discussion, Chair decided to prepare a summary for comments before presenting a proposal to BoS.
 - Mr. Mark Lomas agreed to serve as WHC representative for Open Space Committee.
 - Meeting with Doylestown Historical Society needs to be rescheduled for 4/19 or 4/21. The meeting may explore the possibility of forming a Central Bucks consortium of local Historic Societies and Historic Commissions to address and promote common interests.
 - Meeting attendees suggested to ask Township to move identified building materials at 2436 Street Road for WHS' 10 Folly Road school project.
 - There is no change on the status of School house grant proposal to State Agency.
- New Business.
 - Mr. Sparke expressed interests in compiling a record of Warrington settlers from different era who have their offspring as current Warrington residents.
- Mail. Received announcements on exhibits from Mercer Museum.
- The meeting adjourned at 8:45PM.
