Meeting Minutes

- Chair and attendees congratulated Mr. Lorditch for his WHC appointment.
- WHC members approved April 8, 2019 meeting minutes.
- Chair briefed attendees on the status of 10 Folly Road Schoolhouse renovation:
 - Chair, Mary Roth, and Ken Samen met with Mr. Luber (Township Manager) and Mr. Rieder (Planning Director and Zoning Officer) and learned that Township does not have the site plan for 10 Folly Road. Thus, there is a need to survey the property to develop the plan for reconnecting utilities to the building.
 - Township considered that basement issues should be handled by WHS.
 - Township considered that the renovation project should reimburse PennDOT for property grading associated with County Line improvement.
 - WHS indicated that the extra but needed works could add significant costs to the renovation. Supervisor Albillar noted this new development.
- Mark updated attendees on recent activities of Open Space Task Force in addressing Township wildlife control and management.
- Chair reminded attendees to respond to Volunteer Recognition Luncheon sponsored by Township.
- Chair informed attendees that Daniel P. Bradley Memorial installation at IPW Park on Memorial Day. Chair accepted Kathy's suggestion to have an IPW history signage nearby.
- WHS suggested showing definition of historic structure on Township web pages.
- Mail. WHC received many activity announcements from Mercer Museum.
- Meeting adjourned at 8:09PM.
